

bfo-Journal

The bfo-Journal is an online and multilingual publication, launched in 2015 and issued once a year on bauforschungonline.ch. The bfo-Journal publishes articles on current topics of architectural history and critique, urbanism and monumental preservation. Languages of publication are English, German, French and Italian.

Selection procedure

A peer-review process guarantees the quality of the bfo-Journal. All articles submitted for publication are first considered by the Editorial Board and then submitted to the Scientific Committee or to external experts if the article's theme requires it. The final decision to publish an article or refuse it rests solely with the Editorial Board.
